The meeting was called to order by President Lorna Bock at 7:07 pm on Tuesday, October 22, 2019. Noah and Maykayla led the pledges. There was no treasurer's report and Lorna reviewed the minutes from the August 21, 2019 meeting. Correspondence was passed around. Kaylee Mess, the 2019 Citizenship award recipient, spoke about what it meant to her to receive this award. The theme for the meeting was: “Caution, Future Leaders Under Construction”. The get acquainted activity was led by Deb Senn. Colored Lego pieces were used to form teams that were given uncooked spaghetti and mini marshmallows. The challenge was to build a structure in 5 minutes using the supplied materials. Photos were taken of the teams & their structures. Door prizes were awarded from names put in a basket. Elections were held. JoAnn Critchley, the current representative from District #1, was nominated for a second term and unanimous ballot was moved by Karlene Krueger and seconded by Deb Senn. Motion passed. There were two nominations for District 4, Vicki Thomas & Lori Quackenboss, who both respectfully declined. No other nominations were made. The seat remains vacant as Jackie Luedtke is ineligible as she has served two terms. A search for a volunteer to serve will continue. Tracy Keifenheim, 4-H youth coordinator, went over several items: Annual leader training Thursday, Nov. 14 1-3pm, or 6-8pm; Sign-up sheets still need volunteers for several event committees (FLD, CAF, Silent Auction, Camp, etc.); Officer training is Sat. Tracy led a leader resource activity. Everyone was given a blank sheet of paper and 5 minutes to draw a pig. After that we were to evaluate from the drawing what personality traits we have. Leaders were encouraged to take this activity back to their clubs to share. Under any other business, leaders were reminded that the first half of the month was for club meetings and activities and the second half of the month was for county meetings and activities. This was implemented to prevent conflicts between club and county activities. The next meeting will be Saturday, April 25, 2020 9-11 am. The theme will be: “Blooming Leaders”.
