Think Outside the Box

THE CHALLENGE: Put your pencil down anywhere and without picking it up, can you touch all of the dots in 4 straight lines?

Rules:

- You cannot pick up the pencil once you put it on the paper
- You have to hit all of the dots
- 4 straight lines only, which means once you 'turn a corner' you are starting a second line, etc. So, another way to say it is: 'you only get 4 turns of your pencil'.
- No curvy lines, they have to be straight
- Avoid the temptation to try to find a solution on the internet
- Ask friends and family members
- You can download this sheet or just draw your own nine dots in a school notebook, you WILL need to keep thinking, no one has ever done it on the first time
- The 'title' is kind of a hint

Did You Solve It? Do You Need the Solution? Want More Challenges? Tell Me!

Earth Stories Exchange

The Earth Stories Exchange is simple: write a story about something you did outside, share it with us, and we'll send you a story back like pen pals! Tell us about your adventures and explorations through prose, poem, song, comic strip, however, you want!

Our goal: Promote observation of the natural world by exploring outside and sharing your observations and discoveries through story (poem, song, video, comic strip, any way you want!).

Please feel free to share with me what your clubs are doing, and I will highlight them in the weekly emails to share with everyone as we want to continue to serve our community in this time of need! Please send highlights to Tracy at tracy.keifenheim@wisc.edu. Please include pictures!

Brandon Tanager would like to share a short video presentation of all the community service individuals did during the month of May in lieu of an in-person meeting. Thank you for sharing.
